Local artist Antoine Gaber will host a discussion on his film "It's All About Me," at Niagara Falls Public Library Friday.

The event starts at 7 p.m. at the Victoria Avenue branch.

The film delves into the consequences of a society driven by instant gratification, and how younger generations can succeed in the 'real world.'

"This is a wonderful opportunity for our community to come together and explore the impacts of society on our youth," said chief librarian Alicia Subnaik Kilgour.

Gaber is an artist and photographer, as well as an inductee in the Niagara Falls Arts and Culture Wall of Fame.
